-After Making A Name For Itself In New Jersey, Sixth Avenue Electronics Opens Its First New York Location Since The Original Establishment On Sixth Ave-

Carle Place, NY- In 1984, the Temiz family opened Sixth Avenue Electronics on Sixth Avenue in New York City. Since then, they have successfully opened 9 retail stores in New Jersey and launched an award winning e-commerce site, making their reach nationwide. Regarded as the premier source for high end electronics, Sixth Avenue is proud to announce the opening of their tenth retail store in Carle Place, New York. The opening of this store also marks Sixth Avenue's return home to New York, the first retail establishment in New York since the original in 1984.

In a world where big corporations seem to control the consumer market, family run businesses as successful as Sixth Avenue Electronics are rare. The Temiz family envisioned a store where salespeople were knowledgeable and trustworthy and only the best products were offered to customers. Twenty two years later, their success is proof that their idea was more than a vision; it was the formula for success.

You are invited to join the management and staff of Sixth Avenue Electronics at the Carle Place store ribbon cutting. North Hempstead's Supervisor Hon. Jon Kaiman will be present to cut the ribbon and welcome Sixth Avenue Electronics to the community. This event will take place on Saturday, October 21st at Sixth Avenue's Carle Place store, located at 235 Old Country Road in Carle Place. It will begin at 9am.
